

Primary Humanities

The page features decorative geometric patterns at the top and bottom. The top pattern consists of a dense arrangement of colorful triangles in shades of green, yellow, orange, and blue. The bottom pattern is similar but includes icons of a red cross, a yellow crown, a green plant, and a blue teapot. The background is white with scattered, faint geometric shapes in various colors.

Objectives:

To foster pupils' physical and mental well-being, nurture their proper values and attitudes, and hence to cultivate them to become confident, rational, and responsible citizens.

To encourage an understanding of pupils' roles and responsibilities in the family and society, and hence to contribute to the common good for our country and the world.

To develop knowledge of the country's history, geography, Chinese culture, and modern development to instill a sense of national identity and belonging, and inspire dedication to national and global contributions.

To focus on local, national, and global developments and their interconnectedness.
