

If you were...

6A Lai Ka Hei

If you were a shining star
And I were the midnight,
I would let you shine above me
And you would be my only light.

If you were a scoop of ice cream
And I were an ice cream cone,
I would put you on my shoulders
And I would hold you for my own.

If you were the pages of my book
And I were the reader,
I would read as slowly as I could
And so I never would get through.
