

Best Friends Forever

6A Ethan Wong

An illustration featuring three cartoon children in the foreground. On the left is a girl with orange hair, in the middle is a girl with brown hair, and on the right is a boy with dark hair. Behind them is a large, light blue sign with a white border that says 'Friendship Day' in white and pink letters, with two white stars. The text of the poem is overlaid on the sign and the children.

If you were a cop,
And I were your partner,
I'd listen to your orders.
We'd catch crooks together.

If you were a notebook,
And I were a pen.
I'd jot down our friendship,
We have been friends since ten.

If you were Kylo Ren,
And I were Darth Vader.
I'd cooperate with you,
We'd defeat the invaders.
