

Lunar New Year

1A Mak To Sang

Lunar New Year is a traditional festival in China. This festival means the beginning of spring. Families and friends gather to celebrate this special occasion. A month before the new year, people always clean the house and stick different spring festival couplets.

This year, my mum prepared some traditional food like turnip cake. In the morning of Lunar New Year, we went to visit our friends and relatives. I received some red packets as a new year blessing from the elders.

I will keep my red packets in my money box and I hope I can spend some money on buying Pokemon cards!
